

Old St Helen's Church Community Excavation Project

A community excavation is taking place at Old St Helen's Church, Ore during April 2012 to investigate the early origins of the church, which is now a romantic ruin. We are looking for volunteers to take part in the excavation and other associated work during the project which will run from the 2nd to the 28th April 2012 (excluding the Easter weekend and normally from Tuesday to Saturday).
